ELA

We will spend the first part of the week diving into our third unit, poetry! We start with a fun version of Little Red Riding Hood and learn all about the structures of poems. During this unit students will be using close reading strategies to interpret new poems and identify text evidence. Students will gradually compose their own poems using sensory details and specific structures.

Math

As we return from winter break, we are beginning Unit 4: Equations and Words Problems. Our first concepts will focus on order of operations, inverse operations, and factor pairs.

Monday: Skills Review

Tuesday: Lesson 4.1

Wed.: Lesson 4.1

Thursday: Lesson 4.2

Friday: Lesson 4.2

SOCIAL STUDIES

Today marks the beginning of Unit 4: The Nation's Economy. Students will be learning about the difference between wants and needs and how they relate to our economic system. We will discuss producers and consumers and goods and services in our economy as well. To end our week we will look at different types of economies such as a market economy and a command economy. Please watch for the Chapter 4 Study Guide coming home and review with your child throughout the next few weeks.
